

- 1. Name of the Department: Department of Botany
- 2. Title of the Event: Project Work Presentation
- 3. Nature of the Event: Seminar
- 4. Date and Time: Date: October 25, 26, 2024
Time: (10:30 AM to 4:00 PM)
- 5. Venue: Room No.-09

6. Objectives:

- To evaluate internal assessments for B.Sc. first-semester students, focusing on seminars, classroom reviews, and attendance.
- To enhance the students' ability to present their topics effectively.
- To encourage writing and presentation skills through seminar activities.
- To foster interest in academic subjects and overcome the fear of public speaking.

7. Target Audience

- Participants: B.Sc. first-semester students
- Number of participants: 107

8. Resource Person

- Prof. O.P. Chande (Internal Resource Persons)

9. Event Description

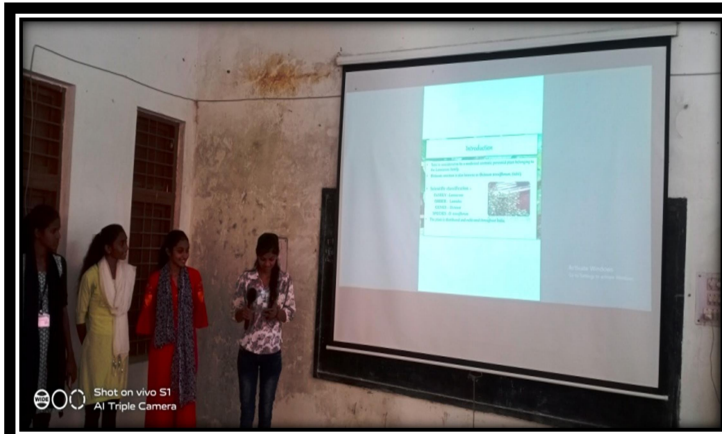

The seminar was organized as part of the internal evaluation process for B.Sc. first-semester students. The program emphasized presentations and writing practices to cultivate essential academic skills. Faculty member facilitated the event, encouraging active participation and improving the students' presentation confidence. The students engaged in classroom readings, topic presentations, and discussions, which helped them overcome stage fear and develop subject mastery.

The seminar sessions involved students presenting relevant topics from their course curriculum. These activities significantly enhanced their ability to articulate concepts and communicate effectively. The event proved to be an enriching experience for the students.

10. Outcome of the Event

- Improved confidence among students in public speaking and presentations.
- Enhanced skills in academic writing and presentation.
- Better engagement and understanding of course topics through peer learning.

11. Photos/Documentation

12. Feedback

- Students appreciated the opportunity to present and learn in an interactive environment. Suggestions included conducting more such seminars to build sustained confidence.